INTRODUCTION

After graduation, I worked for 2 years as a design engineering. But I wasn't suitable for this job and I had a similar time in another job, SEO. In that time, I worked with the website and knew about HTML, CSS and JS. I found it interesting so I learned about them myself. Then, I decided to become a developer for the rest of my journey. I spent about one year to self-study, I learned from the internet, youtube and online courses like TeamTreeHouse, Udemy, Scrimba, Newline, ... and some documentation websites.
